WHAT'S HAPPENING AT HERNDON UMC

SUMMER SCHEDULE - This Summer, Herndon UMC is going to share in an exciting journey called "Summer in the Sandbox"! Each week, we'll play around with a Bible story, creatively exploring, reimagining, or rethinking it. From 6/12 through 8/14, our worship schedule will be as follows:

8am -- casual, brief, outdoor worship at the Doe Fellowship Hall entry (Door 2) with weekly Communion.

10am -- indoor worship in the Sanctuary, initially. Pay attention to Friday emails and signage because this service will rotate to Doe Fellowship Hall based on needs, HVAC conditions, and other factors.

At 5pm, we'll offer a "Sandbox Space." Each week we'll experiment with the text from that week in different ways but, most importantly, in community together.

This is going to be an amazing summer - let's prepare to share it together!

CALLED CHARGE CONFERENCE - A Called Charge Conference will be held on Monday, 06/20 at 7pm in Doe Fellowship Hall to discuss and approve a ministry plan (i.e. budget) for the next fiscal year and the organization of leadership for our church.

DISCOVER HERNDON WITH PASTOR JONATHAN - TODAY! Sunday 06/12 @ 11:30am at Mediterranean Breeze (781 Station St. Herndon). It is meant to be a casual gathering to talk about what it might look like to become a member at Herndon UMC. Attending this event does not mean you have to become a member of the church! It's just an opportunity to explore what church membership might look like in the Community we serve.

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB FOR JUNE - WEDNESDAY 06/15 @7PM via Zoom. The next selection the Women's Book Club will be reading is "The Same Sky," by Amanda Eyre Ward. For more information and the Zoom link contact umwbookclub@herndonumc.org

Welcome | Opening Prayer

Rev. Jonathan Page

Prayer adapted from Liturgies of Creation

In the beginning God created all things,
and God saw that they were good.
At our beginning, God created us
unique and irreplaceable, loved and wanted by God,
known and treasured by God even before God created us.
In all our new beginnings, God creates something new so we will seek God in the freshness of this morning,
in the laughter of friends,
in the colors of creation,
and in this beautiful place.
Lord God, Maker of Creation,
open our eyes to see your presence,
our souls to sense your presence,
and our hearts to love your presence,
ever here in your creation,
and ever beyond it in eternity.
Amen.

Sunlit from Heaven,
Like the first dewfall
On the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness
Of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness
Where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight,
Mine is the morning,
Born of the one light
Eden saw play.
Praise with elation,
Praise every morning,
God's re-creation
Of the new day!

The Wise Man and Foolish Man

Traditional from Matthew 7:24-27

Amelia Neira—Soloist | The Joyful Noise Choir | Herndon UMC Ukuleles

Scripture

Genesis 1:1—2:4

All: In the beginning, God created everything: the heavens above and the earth below.

Narrator: Here's what happened: At first the earth lacked shape and was totally empty, and a dark fog draped over the deep while God's spirit-wind hovered over the surface of the empty waters. Then there was the voice of God.

ALL (God): Let there be light.

Narrator: And light flashed into being.

All: God saw that the light was beautiful and good, and He separated the light from the darkness.

Narrator: God named the light "day" and the darkness "night." Evening gave way to morning. That was day one.

ALL (God): Let there be a vast expanse in the middle of the waters. Let the waters above part from the waters below.

Narrator: So God parted the waters and formed this expanse, separating the waters above from the waters below.

All: It happened just as God said.

Narrator: And God called the vast expanse "sky." Evening gave way to morning. That was day two.

ALL (God): Let the waters below the heavens be collected into one place and congregate into one vast sea, so that dry land may appear.

Narrator: It happened just as God said. God called the dry land "earth" and the waters congregated below "seas." And God saw that His new creation was beautiful and good.

ALL (God): Earth, sprout green vegetation! Grow all varieties of seed-bearing plants and all sorts of fruit-bearing trees.

All: It happened just as God said.

Narrator: The earth produced vegetation—seed-bearing plants of all varieties and fruit-bearing trees of all sorts.

All: And God saw that His new creation was beautiful and good.

Narrator: Evening gave way to morning. That was day three.

ALL (God): Lights, come out! Shine in the vast expanse of heavens' sky dividing day from night to mark the seasons, days, and years. Lights, warm the earth with your light.

Narrator: It happened just as God said. God fashioned the two great lights—the brighter to mark the course of day, the dimmer to mark the course of night—and the Divine needled night with the stars. God set them in heavens' sky to cast warm light on the earth, to rule over the day and night, and to divide the light from the darkness.

All: And God saw that His new creation was beautiful and good.

Narrator: Evening gave way to morning. That was day four.

ALL (God): Waters, swarm with fish and sea creatures. Let birds soar high above the earth in the broad expanse of sky.

Narrator: So God created huge sea creatures, all the swarm of life in the waters, and every kind and species of flying birds—each able to reproduce its own kind. And God saw that His new creation was beautiful and good. And God spoke this blessing over them:

ALL (God): Be fruitful and multiply. Let creatures fill the seas. Let birds reproduce and cover the earth.

Narrator: Evening gave way to morning. That was day five.

ALL (God): Earth, generate life! Produce a vast variety of living creatures—domesticated animals, small creeping creatures, and wild animals that roam the earth.

Narrator: It happened just as God said. God made earth-creatures in a vast variety of species: wild animals, domesticated animals of all sizes, and small creeping creatures, each able to reproduce its own kind.

All: God saw that His new creation was beautiful and good.

NARRATOR: And God paused.

[INSERT BLACK SCREEN]

ALL (God): Now let Us conceive a new creation—humanity—made in Our image, fashioned according to Our likeness. And let Us grant them authority over all the earth—the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, the domesticated animals and the small creeping creatures on the earth.

Narrator: So God did just that. He created humanity in His image, created them male and female. Then God blessed them and gave them this directive: “Be fruitful and multiply. Populate the earth. I make you trustees of My estate, so care for My creation and rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and every creature that roams across the earth.”

ALL (God to humanity): ! I have given you every seed-bearing plant that grows on the earth and every fruit-bearing tree. They will be your food and nourishment. As for all the wild animals, the birds in the sky, and every small creeping creature—everything that breathes the breath of life—I have given them every green plant for food.

NARRATOR: And it happened just as God said.

ALL: Then God surveyed everything He had made, savoring its beauty and appreciating its goodness. Evening gave way to morning. That was day six.

Narrator: So now you see how the Creator swept into being the spangled heavens, the earth, and all their hosts in six days. On the seventh day—with the canvas of the cosmos completed—God paused from His labor and rested. Thus God blessed day seven and made it special—an open time for pause and restoration, a sacred zone of Sabbath-keeping, because God rested from all the work He had done in creation that day. This is the detailed story of the Eternal God’s singular work in creating all that exists.
