Welcome & Announcements | Rev. Pam Bentley

Today we are celebrating All Saints Day. Though we don't typically celebrate the canonized saints of the church and all their various saints' days in our denomination, we recognize that we have saints in our own lives who have formed our faith in some way and who have passed on from this life. So on All Saints Day, we celebrate, honor, and remember these forebearers of the faith. Today in worship we will read aloud the names of the saints in our community who have passed in the last year and light a candle in their memory.

Surrounding the altar, we already see the pictures and lights in memory of the saints in our lives from years past. If you are worshipping from home, we invite you to find a candle to light so you can join us in this time of remembering our saints. We pray that their memory will continue to be a beacon of faith, hope, and love for us all.

Call to Worship | Rev. Pam Bentley

[One] Where did you last see God?

[All] I have seen God in my neighbor, I have seen God in the stranger;

[One] The child playing peek-a-boo from his stroller, the grandmother who spends her afternoons in the park; the teenagers on the bus who cannot control their laughter; the mother who whispers a dozen times a day, "thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus".

[All] The musician in the street, the poets, the artists, the garden volunteers,

[One] The man who gave up his seat on the metro, the kid in the dinosaur pajamas who cannot be convinced they're not school attire; the teachers, the nurses, the taxi cab drivers;
[All] the runners, the daydreamers, the sidewalk chalk artists;

[One] John from upstairs whose favorite flowers are yellow tulips, the man at the grocery who tells me to be safe when I leave
[All] I have seen God in my neighbor, I have seen God in the stranger;

[All] thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus.

Opening Song | For All the Saints | UMH 711 | led by Melissa Chavez

[V. 1] For all the saints, who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.

[Refrain] Alleluia, Alleluia!

[V. 2] Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light. [Refrain]

[V. 3] O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and win with them the victor's crown of gold. [Refrain]

[V. 4] O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. [Refrain]

[V. 5] And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,

steals on the ear the distant triumph song, and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. [Refrain]

[V. 6] From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearl streams in the countless host, singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: [Refrain]

Opening Prayer | Rev. Pam Bentley

Holy God, you knit us together, threading our lives to the generations before us and the generations after us. May today we feel your invitation to join the work our ancestors began and to build on what we are doing now with our prayers, our presence, our gifts and our service. Amen.

Passing of the Peace | Rev. Pam Bentley

Up where the streets are paved with gold,
Oh, yes, I want to be in that number
Where the streets are paved with gold.

Offertory | Hymn of Promise | UMH 707 | led by Melissa Chavez

[V. 1] In the bulb there is a flower;
in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise:
butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

[V. 2] There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
there's a dawn in every darkness bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future;
what it holds, a mystery,

unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

[V. 3] In our end is our beginning;
in our time, infinity;
in our doubt there is believing;
in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection;
at the last, a victory,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

Praise Him, all creatures here below

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Offering Prayer | Rev. Pam Bentley

Scripture | Hebrews 12:1-2 NRSVUE | Chris Miller

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

This is the word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Litany of the Saints |

On All Saints Day, we take time to remember and honor those who have gone before us. While they were with us, we saw them face to face. Their voice, their touch, their smile. And now, beyond the veil that separates this world and the next, all we see is the glow of their Christ-light, flickering as part of the great cloud of witnesses.

Though we don't see them face to face any longer, these saints are not gone. Their memory lives on in us as their soul lives on in their Creator. Their Christ-light shines just as brightly as before, unbound by the physical limitations of their earthly bodies. They are now part of the glory that awaits beyond this life. Thanks be to God.

Let us pray:

November 3, 2024

Holy God, in whom we live and move and have our being, we entrust these souls to you. As you formed them from the earth, we have returned their bodies to the earth. And as you breathed your breath of life into them, their souls have returned to you, Source of All. Hold them close, and hold us close, too. Give us your peace as we await the day we return to you in glory. In life, in death, and in life after death, we trust in you, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Special Music | I'll Be On My Way | Shawn Kirchner | Wesley Choir, Bronson Rodriguez, soloist

When I am gone, don't you cry for me,
Don't you pity my sorry soul;
What pain there might have been
Will now be past,
And my spirit will be whole.

I'll be on my way,
I'll be on my way.
I'll have left my feet
Of clay upon the ground
I will be glory-bound,
I'll be on my way!

When I am gone, please forgive the wrongs
That I might have done to you;
There'll be no room for regrets up there,
High above, way beyond the blue.

I'll be on my way,
I'll be on my way.
I'll have laid my frown
And all my burdens down,

I'll be puttin' on my crown,
I'll be on my way!

When I am gone don't you look for me
In the places I have been.
I'll be alive, but somewhere else –
I'll be on my way again!

I'll be on my way,
I'll be on my way.
I will lift my wings
And soar into the air,
There'll be glory everywhere
I'll be on my way!

I'll have laid my frown
And all my burdens down,
I'll be puttin' on my crown,
I'll be on my way!

I'll have left my feet
Of clay upon the ground
I will be glory-bound,
I'll be on my way!

Communion |

The saints have gathered around this Table week after week for thousands of years because this simple meal of bread and wine brings us together as only our Holy Parent can, across space and time, one family of faith, existing in the eternity of God's grace. This meal is for you. Whether this is your first time or your thousandth, you are welcome at this Table because it is Christ himself who invites you. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Merciful God,

we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have failed to be an obedient church.

We have not done your will,

we have broken your law,

we have rebelled against your love,

we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy.

Forgive us, we pray.

Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners;

that proves God's love toward us.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Glory to God. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,

Always and everywhere to give thanks to you,

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING / PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Holy Creator, you fashioned us with a heart like yours: expansive and made to love deeply. We hold so many people in our hearts this day—those who have passed and those left behind, those who have laid a foundation for our faith and those who will build on the foundation we have laid, those who are grieving the loss of a loved one and those who are celebrating a new life entering this world.

In your wisdom beyond our understanding, you have placed a veil around this life. We don't know what was before; we don't know what's after. All we know is the passing from one to the next and the holy in-between in which we live all of our days. Our lives are only a brief glimmer in your eternal glory, one flickering candle with a borrowed flame.

We pray that you would keep our flames strong. Give us a fire that burns for justice, warms cold hearts, and comforts those living in an endless night. Let our brief flames ignite and inspire others, passing on what we have received from the saints you have placed in our lives. And as our lights dim, grant us the peace of rest in your holy darkness and your eternal glory.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.
By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection
You gave birth to your church,

Delivered us from slavery to sin and death,
And make with us a new covenant
By water and the Spirit.

Paul tells the Corinthians,
“For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’

In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.”

And so,
in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us,
may we then come to fully understand the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.
By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other,
and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church,
all honor and glory is yours, almighty God,
now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

The Body of Christ, broken for you.
The Blood of Christ, poured out for you.

Closing Song | I Sing a Song of the Saints of God | UMH 712 | Led by Melissa Chavez

[V. 1] I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true, who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen,
and one was a shepherdess on the green;

they were all of them saints of God, and I mean, God helping, to be one too.

[V. 2] They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and his love made them strong;
and they followed the right for Jesus' sake
the whole of their good lives long.

And one was a soldier, and one was a priest, and one was slain by a fierce wild beast;
and there's not any reason, no, not the least,
why I shouldn't be one too.

[V. 3] They lived not only in ages past;
there are hundreds of thousands still.

The world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will.

You can meet them in school, on the street, in the store, in church, by the sea, in the house next door;
they are saints of God, whether rich or poor,
and I mean to be one too.
